NOTICE OF INFORMATION PRACTICES REQUIRED BY THE INSURANCE INFORMATION AND PRIVACY PROTECTION ACT

To properly underwrite and administer your life and health coverage, Equitable Reserve Association must collect certain information. In general, it includes age, occupation, physical condition, health history, mode of living and avocations.

The primary source of information is your application and any supporting amendments, questionnaires, etc. However, it may be necessary to obtain more information from sources such as medical professionals and institutions which have provided care to you or members of your family proposed for coverage, your employers and business associates, friends and neighbors, public records and other insurance companies to which you may have applied. Information from these sources may be obtained by correspondence, phone, or personal contact.

In some cases we may ask an insurance support organization to complete an investigative consumer report for us. That organization may retain a copy of the report and may disclose its contents to others for whom it performs such services.

DISCLOSURES

By law, Equitable Reserve Association, either directly or through an agent, may disclose information about you to others without your specific authorization. When asked to do so, we provide only that which is reasonably necessary to accomplish the intended purpose. The following summary describes disclosures which may be made, although Equitable Reserve Association may not always choose to make such disclosures:

1. To other persons or organizations who perform business, professional or insurance services for us, and whose proper performance for us requires that we disclose certain information to them.
2. To another insurance company to which you have applied for coverage or benefits.
3. To your Equitable Reserve Association agent to assist in providing proper service to you.
4. To insurance support organizations formed to prevent or detect fraud in insurance transactions.
5. To our reinsurers if we ask them to accept a portion of the risk under your policy.
6. To a medical care institution or medical professional to verify that you have coverage with us. Also, if a medical examination for insurance purposes reveals a condition or problem unknown to the individual, we may inform the individual's personal medical professional.
7. To state regulatory authorities who conduct examinations and audits of Equitable Reserve Association operation.
8. To group policyholders who are entitled to audit our records and receive reports of claim experience.
9. To law enforcement agencies to assist in the prevention or prosecution of fraud, or to alert them to the possibilities of illegal conduct.

YOUR RIGHTS OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

You have certain rights concerning access to information about you that we have collected and retained in our files. To maintain security of that information, access will be permitted only after proper identification has been submitted to us.

If you would like access to this information you must send a signed, written request to the Underwriting Department, Equitable Reserve Association, P.O. Box 448, Neenah, WI 54957-0448. If you wish to see and copy the record in person, we will advise you of the location of the records. There may be a charge for each copy made.

Also, we will tell you to whom we have disclosed information about you within the last two years or to whom such information normally would have been disclosed.

There are limitations of access. We will identify sources of information which comes from institutions such as hospitals, clinics, doctors or insurance support organizations, but we will not identify sources of information which was obtained from individuals such as friends or neighbors. Also, we are not obligated to provide access to information obtained in connection with or in anticipation of a claim for policy benefits or a civil or criminal proceeding.

Medical information will be provided only through a doctor or some other medical professional, designated by you, who is licensed to provide medical care relevant to the nature of the information.

CORRECTION OR DELETION OF INFORMATION

If you believe after reviewing information in our files that it is incorrect, you may request, in writing that we correct, amend or delete any item of information. Requests should be directed to the Underwriting Department, Equitable Reserve Association, P.O. Box 448, Neenah, WI 54957-0448. We will respond within thirty business days of receipt of your written request.

If we agree that certain changes should be made, we will notify any person to whom we may have disclosed the original information during the preceding two years. We will also notify any insurance support organization to whom we have disclosed the information or who may have furnished the original information.

If we do not agree to change our records you may file with us a brief written statement setting forth what you believe to be the correct, relevant or fair information and why you disagree with our decision not to change the original information. Your statement will become a permanent part of our file and will be disclosed in the future with the original information. Also, copies of your statement will be sent to any person or insurance support organization to whom the original information was furnished.

INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT NOTICE

As part of our procedure for processing your initial insurance application, an investigative consumer report may be prepared, in which information is obtained from public records and through personal interviews with your neighbors, friends, employers, business associates or others with whom you are acquainted. This inquiry includes information as to your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living. You have the right to make a written request to be personally interviewed during completion of the report, and you also have the right to make a written request within a reasonable period of time to receive additional, detailed information about the nature and scope of this investigation.
